GRÜNER VELTLINER CLASSIC 2017

In Austria, the fad is to drink the freshest wine from the most recent vintage. But good Gruner Veltliner needs some bottle age to show its talents. When I first tasted the Lustig, I shrugged and thought, "Yeah, it's Gruner." After about 30 minutes, I did a double take. The aromas of white flowers and the talc-like minerality I love in Austrian Gruner had unfurled, and the wine was simply delicious. It kept improving over the next hour or so, adding a refreshing lime zest quality on the finish.
