ARTISANS & VINES Women in Wine

A celebration of our women winemakers and wine families.

Anne-Charlotte Mélia-Bachas Château de la Font du Loup

Châteauneuf-du-Pape, France
Côtes du Rhône, Blanc
Côtes du Rhône, Rouge
Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Blanc
Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Rouge, "Les Demoiselles" &, "Le Puy Rolland"

Anne-Charlotte comes from a line of talented winegrowers who, like her father Charles before her, never stop expressing the uniqueness of their terroir in wines with a unique temperament. It must be said that in the middle of the pebbles warmed by the Provence sun, the Mélia family has felt growing roots for four generations now.

Céline Chauvet

Domaine du Grapillon d'or

Grapillon d'or - Gigondas "Cuvee 1806",
Gigondas AOC, France
Vacqueyras Rouge,
Vacqueyras AOC, France

Founded in 1806, the property has remained in the hands of the Chauvet family to this day. Since 1970, the estate has been successfully managed by my father (8th generation). I joined him, about 30 years ago to take charge of the winemaking and management of the estate.

Christiane Wagner

Dr. Wagner

VDP Certified Rieslings from Saarburg, Germany

I became a winemaker because, "It lies in your genes when you are born to a long-established, wine-growing dynasty. The generations before me that built up a wealth of experience with their aspirations for perfection and innovation in wine and sparkling wine. They built up the winery to where it stands today."

Diane Casamatta & Eugénie Zurawky

Château La Commanderie de Gombeau

Bordeaux, France
Château La Commanderie de Gombeau Bordeaux Rouge

Diane and Eugénie, granddaughters of wine matriarch Marie-José Degas, learned their craft at family winery Château Degas. With Château La Commanderie de Gombeau, taken over and managed by Diane, they have created a fresh, modern expression of Bordeaux varietals.

Elena & Emi Pacheco

Bodegas Viña Elena

Jumilla, Spain
Familia Pacheco - Organic Monastrell & Silencio Organic 3L

We work from the experience of four generations in constant evolution. Our identity is based on a continuous look to the future but without losing our values as a family winery. Our main objective is to value the wine diversity that we have in Spain and especially in the DO Jumilla, one of the oldest.

Sofia Thanisch

Wwe. Dr. H. Thanisch, Erben Thanisch

VDP Certified Rieslings
from Bernkastel-Kues,
Germany (Mosel)

The winery has exceptional status not only because of its 375-year tradition and its long history of success, but also because women have been determining the fortunes of the winery for four generations. 375 years of wine-growing tradition in our family stands for 375 vintages of classic, amazing Mosel rieslings!

Paula Yago Aznar

Bodegas Tempore

Zaragoza, Spain
Independent Macabeo /
Garnacha Blanca
Independent Garnacha
Independent Tempranillo

The Yago Aznar family belongs to this land. They feel it and respect it. These values have been taught throughout past generations bringing tradition and innovation together, but always looking towards the future. We rely on our philosophy "respect for the land and passion for the wine."
