

GEORGES VIGOUROUX

“Les Comtes de Cahors”

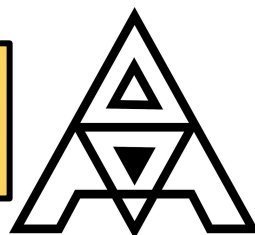

French Malbec

Rich heady black fruits nose; quite savoury with menthol and liquorice. Good concentration of pure, black cherry fruit with a layered textural quality that's rather pleasing and has a healthy vein of acidity.

The Washington Post says, “this is a French expression of malbec. That means flavors more toward the earth than the sun, more spice than fruit.”
