

LA ROSALIE

IGP ATLANTIQUE – ROSÉ

BORDEAUX

Story

Nestled in the sun-kissed vineyards of the Dropt Valley, at the far eastern edge of the IGP Atlantique region, La Rosalie takes its name from a celebrated rose garden that once blossomed in this corner of France. Crafted along the windswept Atlantic coast, Rosalie captures the crisp, coastal character of the IGP Atlantique region.

Unlike the deeper reds of the region, La Rosalie showcases the delicate, vibrant characters of Cabernet Franc.

The IGP Atlantique extends into the South-West part of France and is the only IGP of the Bordeaux region.

Farming philosophy : Sustainable

Vineyard Information

Grape varieties : 57% Cabernet Sauvignon & 43% Cabernet Franc

Vineyard size : 150 ha (370 acres)

Average age of the vines : 10-15 years

Elevation : 0 to 110m (0-360 ft)

Soils : Clay and limestone

FARMING PRACTICES

- Training method : Guyot
- Optimization of treatments with regular monitoring in the vineyard

Winemaking

- Mechanical Harvest by night / Destemmed (100%)
- Direct press
- Cold settling : 41°F for 8 to 12 days
- Fermentation : Temperature controlled stainless steel tank / 15 days at 64.4°F
- Pneumatic press
- Aging : 3 months in stainless steel tank / on fine lees with stirring
- Fined : Yes (Bentonite)
- Filtration : tangential
- Vegan : Yes

Tasting notes

With delicate notes of wild strawberries, white peach, and a hint of rose petals, this wine is fresh, vibrant, and effortlessly elegant. Its subtle minerality and crisp finish evoke the salty air of the Atlantic, making it the perfect companion for seaside moments, picnics, or sunset toasts.

