

LA ROSALIE

IGP ATLANTIQUE – SAUVIGNON BLANC

BORDEAUX

Story

Nestled in the sun-kissed vineyards of the Dropt Valley, at the far eastern edge of the IGP Atlantique region, La Rosalie takes its name from a celebrated rose garden that once blossomed in this corner of France. Crafted along the windswept Atlantic coast, Rosalie captures the crisp, coastal character of the IGP Atlantique region. Here, Sauvignon Blanc thrives in a climate shaped by ocean breezes, producing wines that are bright, fresh, and distinctly vibrant. The IGP Atlantique extends into the South-West part of France and is the only IGP of the Bordeaux region.

Farming philosophy : Sustainable

Vineyard Information

Grape varieties : 100% Sauvignon Blanc

Vineyard size : 150 ha (370 acres)

Average age of the vines : 10-15 years

Elevation : 0 to 110m (0-360 ft)

Soils : Clay and limestone

FARMING PRACTICES

- Training method : Guyot
- Optimization of treatments with regular monitoring in the vineyard

Winemaking

- Mechanical harvest / Whole bunches (100%)
- Pneumatic press
- Fermentation : Temperature controlled stainless steel and concrete tanks / 10 days
- No malolactic fermentation
- Aging : in stainless steel and concrete tanks / on the lees
- SO2 added at the receival, after the alcoholic fermentation, and adjustments before bottling
- Fined : Yes
- Filtration : Yes
- Vegan : No

Tasting notes

A Sauvignon Blanc that delivers lifted aromas of citrus blossom, grapefruit peel, and fresh-cut herbs. The palate is bright and saline, with tangy lemon-lime fruit, crisp acidity, and a clean, refreshing finish. A vibrant wine that captures the breezy character of its coastal terroir.

